Sherwood Home Occupations Zoning Code per Ordinance 2360

Section 1. Section 14.10.05 of the Sherwood Zoning Code are hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

A home occupation may be permitted in any residentially zoned district provided it complies with the following provisions:

A. Standards

1. The business, occupation or profession is conducted by a person or persons residing in the principal dwelling. No non-resident may be employed at the dwelling unit; and,
2. The home occupation is located entirely within the principal dwelling unit; and,
3. The home occupation involves the use of not more than one commercial vehicle and no parked vehicle will serve as advertising for the home occupation; and,
4. The home occupation does not require the use of an accessory building or yard space or an activity outside the main structure not normally associated with residential use; and,
5. Does not display merchandise or have outside storage of equipment or materials in a manner visible from the street; and,
6. The home occupation does not alter the external appearance of the principal dwelling unit; and,

7. The home occupation does not create noise, vibration, glare, fumes, electromagnetic interference, odors, or air pollution outside the principal dwelling unit; and,
 8. The home occupation does not involve the storage of hazardous materials, other than substances of a type and quantity customarily associated with a home or hobby; and,
 9. The home occupation will not result in more than one (1) customer vehicle parked at the principal dwelling unit at a time, except that vehicles temporarily parked for the purpose of "drop-off" or "pick-up" of children or students is permitted; and,
 10. No display that will indicate from the exterior that the building is being utilized in part for any purpose other than that of a dwelling, except for one (1) permitted sign; and,
 11. The home occupation does not require pickup of non-household solid waste. No dumpsters are permitted for home occupations; and,
- B. Examples of Home Occupations
1. Activities conducted principally by telephone, computer, facsimile, or mail; or,
 2. Studios where handicrafts or objects of art are created; or,
 3. Independent sales or professional consultant; or,
 4. Dressmaking or apparel alterations; or,
 5. Bookkeeping services; or,
 6. Instructing, or tutoring (limited to two (2) customers/clients at a time); or,
 7. Residential childcare (up to five children)
- C. Prohibited Home Occupations
1. Any use that requires a building code upgrade (i.e., from residential standards to commercial standards) to accommodate the home occupation; or,
 2. Kennels; or,
 3. Eating or drinking establishment of any kind; or,
 4. Bed and breakfast, unless approved as a Conditional Use in a residential district allowing such use; or,
 5. Any illegal activity
